

Rice University – Customized Protective Shields

RFP # 2020-07-004

Addendum 1

July 31, 2020

This Addendum serves to provide information on the volume of work to assist participants with quoting products and services. If additional information is required, please request via email.

The bid is required for the one station as drawn in the PDF. Rice will use the cost, qualifications, and schedule proposed as a means of evaluation for remaining shield needs.
